MICHAEL WALDROP,
Plaintiff,

vs.

CV-2014-159

SCHLUMBERGER TECHNOLOGY
CORPORATION, a foreign profit
Corporation, M-I SWACO (a.k.a.
M-I LLC), a foreign Limited Liability Company, and LEONEL LUJAN,
Defendants.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR RETALIATORY DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION OF THE
NEW MEXICO WAGE AND HOUR ACT AND FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT, AND FOR PRIMA
FACIE TORT AND BREACH OF IMPLIED CONTRACT

COMES NOW, Michael Waldrop, the Plaintiff, by and through his attorneys, the Martin, Dugan and Martin Law Firm, and for his *First Amended Complaint For Retaliatory Discharge In Violation Of The New Mexico Wage And Hour Act and the Fair Labor Standards
Act, and for Prima Facie Tort and Breach of Implied Contract* states:

1. Plaintiff, Michael Waldrop, is a resident of Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico.
2. The Defendant, Schlumberger Technology Corporation, is a foreign corporation whose registered agent for process is National Registered Agent's Inc, located at 123
East Marcy, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501.
3. M-I Swaco is known as M-I, LLC. It is a foreign limited liability company.
Schlumberger owns this company and manages it. Its registered agent for process is National Registered Agent's Inc, located at 123 East Marcy, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501.

4. Leonel Lujan is an employee of Schlumberger/M-I Swaco. He was Plaintiff's supervisor.
5. The Plaintiff and the Defendants all work and do business in Eddy County, New Mexico. The facts giving rise to this Complaint also occurred in Eddy County, New Mexico. Venue is proper in the Fifth Judicial District Court of Eddy County.
6. Plaintiff worked for the Defendant Schlumberger/M-I Swaco at a rig located in an isolated portion South Eddy County. For over two years he had been paid "drive time" for the time it took him to drive from his home to the rig. Likewise, other employees were also paid drive time for the time it took them to drive from their home to the rig.
7. Plaintiff worked approximately sixteen (16) hour days. Approximately twelve (12) of those hours were spend on site at the rig. The remaining four (4) were spent driving between the rig and his home.
8. The Defendant Schlumberger/M-I Swaco provided Plaintiff with a company truck for his drive.
9. In or around January 2013 the Defendant Schlumberger/M-I Swaco delivered overnight trailers to the rig site. These trailers had sleeping quarters. The Plaintiff was told about the trailers and that he could stay in trailers rather than drive home. Plaintiff was not told he would be paid to stay in the trallers, and believed he would not be compensated for staying overnight at a remote rig site.
10. The Plaintiff elected not to stay overnight in trailers. Between January 2013 and December 9, 2013, he continued to drive between the rig and his home. He also continued to collect drive time during this period without any objection from his employer or directive not to include the drive time.

11. The Plaintiff's coworkers and employees of Defendant continued to collect drive time and were not staying at the rig site.

12. On December 9, 2013, an employee by the name "Chapa" contacted Plaintiff and requested he stop putting drive time on his time sheet. Shortly thereafter on the same day, the Plaintiff was contacted by his supervisor, the Defendant Leonel Lujan, and the following exchange occurred via text:

- a. LUJAN: "Why are you charging drive time when a place has been provided for you at the rig?"
- b. PLAINTIFF: "I live an (sic) 2 hours away u will not force me to stay on the rig without paying me for it if u pay me to stay here I will."
- c. LUJAN: "Clean your truck then, I cannot force you to stay at the rig, but you cannot force me to keep you hired. I'll have Chapa pick up your truck."

13. The Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment at that time.

14. The Defendants terminated Plaintiff as a result of his good faith complaint about not being paid to stay at site, and good faith request to be paid if the Defendants were going to force him to stay at the rig.

15. The Plaintiff complained to Defendants' upper level management who further ratified the actions of the Lujan.

16. The Plaintiff suffered job loss, loss of income, and other damages as a result of Defendants' actions.

17. The Defendants' actions constitute an unlawful employment practice and violate the anti-retaliation provisions of the New Mexico Wage And Hour Act's anti-retaliation provisions (N.M.S.A. 1978, §50-4-26.1) and the Fair Labor Standards Act (29 U.S.C.A. §215).
18. The Defendants' actions breached the implied contract between the Plaintiff and the Defendants with regard to his working conditions and not requiring he stay overnight at the rig site.
19. The Defendants' actions breached the public policy in New Mexico and the United States prohibiting retaliation against workers for protesting working conditions and exercising rights with regard to payment of wages and working conditions.
20. The Defendants' actions constitute a prima facie tort.
21. The Defendants are jointly and severally liable.
22. The Plaintiff is entitled to an award of punitive damages and all other damages recoverable under the law.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays for a judgment against the Defendants to include:

1. An award of general, actual, consequential, and punitive damages;
2. An award of costs and attorney's fees;
3. Prejudgment and post judgment interest; and
4. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
